

Donation Quality Guidelines:

Treehouse takes pride in distributing high-quality items to the youth we serve. Please make sure all donated items are new or gently used and review the information below to understand which items we only accept new. Our free store provides clothes, toys, books, school supplies and other essentials to youth aged 0-26 statewide.

All donated items are inspected for quality before being offered in our store to ensure a dignified shopping experience for our shoppers. Help us make this process easier by only donating high-quality items.
